PROGRAM ITINERARY:

MAR 5, Friday: San Francisco – Copenhagen

- Fly to Denmark

MAR 6, Saturday: Copenhagen

- Midday arrival
- Assistance.
- Overall Panoramic tour of Copenhagen - The tour leads you to the most important sights such as the city hall, Tivoli, Ny Carlsberg Glyptotek, Christiansborg (parliament), the former stock exchange market, Rosenborg castle, Kongens Nytorv (public square) and the harbor quarter Nyhavn. A photo stop at the “little mermaid” and a walk through the castle square of the royal residence Amalienborg cannot be missed out. Depending on the traffic, a few more photo stops are possible at the maritime district Christianshavn, the new opera and the noble Frederiksberg.
- Check-in at HOTEL IMPERIAL or similar – Centrally located
- Dinner & overnight at the hotel

MAR 7, Sunday: Copenhagen

- Breakfast at the hotel
- Continue your city tour of Old Town to include Rundetaarn - Built in the 17th century by King Christian IV, Rundetaarn is one of Copenhagen's most iconic landmarks. Instead of stairs, a unique spiral ramp winds up to the top, originally designed so horse-drawn carts could carry equipment to the observatory above. From the top, visitors are rewarded with sweeping views over Copenhagen's rooftops and spires.
- Guided visit of the Rosenborg Castle & Treasury
- 2hour Smørrebrød Lunch Cooking Class
- 1hour Classic canal tour - On this one-hour boat tour, you will discover the best of Copenhagen! You'll experience all the famous sights and iconic landmarks, including the famous Little Mermaid, the majestic Amalienborg Castle – home of the royal family, and the beautiful Opera. Take in the beauty and history of the city as we sail through the historic harbor and narrow canals.
- Dinner and overnight at the hotel

MAR 8, Monday: Copenhagen

- Breakfast at the hotel
- Guided tour of Øens Have - We will share the story of how the old canteen from a large shipyard was transformed into Scandinavia's biggest urban farm. Depending on your interests, we can dive deeper into topics such as our approach to urban farming, biodiversity and market gardening, or how urban farms can be used as tools for greener city development — and much more, just let us know your interest.
- CopenHill to include Sledding ticket - CopenHill is an urban mountain placed on top of a state-of-the-art waste-to-energy plant, ARC, which is one of the most unique architectural designs in the world. The plant produces environmental-friendly energy with the newest technology by burning waste and turning the exhaust into energy which yearly provides the city of Copenhagen with electricity for 30,000 households and central heating for 72,000 households.
- 2hour Guided tour of the “Free City Christiania” - The free city Christiania is an alternative living town in the Danish capital city of Copenhagen existing since 1971. The inhabitants view themselves living in a free city, which rules itself independently from the government of Denmark. It is basic-democratic and aligned to consensus, where the people believe in self-regulation. Learn about Christiania's structure and history with your “Christianit” local guide.
- Copenhagen Planetarium admission for self-guided visit to include Film in the Planetarium Dome. Students will explore topics like astrophysics and space science.

MAR 9, Tuesday: Copenhagen – Göteborg

- Breakfast at the hotel
- Depart to Älmhult, Sweden taking the Öresund Bridge.
- Visit the IKEA Museum - IKEA Museum is a must for anyone who's curious about IKEA. Find out more about our history, design, and how founder Ingvar Kamprad, from the little village of Agunnaryd, created the global brand of today
- Lunch at IKEA restaurant
- 2.5hour workshop at IKEA-Museum - Step into the shoes of an IKEA designer and create your own prototype of something that enables you, or the many people, to live a better everyday life. Everything we do in the workshop is based on the five principles of Democratic Design, namely achieving form, function, quality and sustainability, at a low price. The workshop gives participants insight into designing for circularity, and how one can help the many people live a healthier and more sustainable life at home.
- Proceed to Göteborg
- Check-in at COMFORT HOTEL GOETEBORG or similar – Centrally located
- Dinner and overnight at the hotel

MAR 10, Wednesday: Göteborg – Aarhus

- Breakfast at the hotel
