Piedmont University College of Education

GRADUATE PROGRAMS WITH A REPUTATION FOR EXCELLENCE!

Master of Arts (MA)
Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT)

- Art Education
- Elementary Education
- Middle Grades Education
- Music Education
- Secondary Education
- Special Education
- Adaptive Curriculum
- Educational Leadership

Educational Specialist (EdS)

- Art Education
- Music Education
- Curriculum & Instruction

Doctor of Education (EdD)

- Curriculum & Instruction
- Tier II Educational Leadership

Master of Education (MEd)

- School Counseling

Certification Only

- Art Education
- Drama Education
- Educational Leadership (Tier 1)
- Elementary Education
- Middle Grades Education
- Music Education
- Secondary Education
- Special Education

We teach teachers. Whether you're looking for an advanced degree program to enhance your knowledge and skills, upgrade your certification, or transition into a role in administration, Piedmont has been known as THE teacher of teachers for more than a century. Our College of Education graduate programs are among the most respected in the state, which is why we place more teachers than any other teacher-preparation program in Georgia.

Interested? Please contact:

Piedmont University Graduate Admissions
706.778.3000 x1392
piedmont.edu/graduate-admissions

Learn more about our College of Education degrees at piedmont.edu/education.

#1
for teacher placements in Georgia
According to the Governor's Office on Student Achievement