LOCAL DAR CHAPTER HOSTS AMERICAN REVOLUTION EXPERIENCE TRAVELING EXHIBIT AT KILLINGLY PUBLIC LIBRARY

Innovative Revolutionary War Exhibition is Collaborative Project of the American Battlefield Trust and the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution

(Killingly, CT) — The Deborah Avery Putnam Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is excited to announce the opening of the American Revolution Experience Exhibition at Killingly Public Library on Saturday, September 19, 2026. The innovative pop-up exhibition includes display panels and interactive digital kiosks that use storytelling, illustration, technology and unique artifacts and primary accounts to connect modern audiences with the people and places that shaped the birth of our nation. Created through a collaboration between the American Battlefield Trust and the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, the exhibit is also made possible by generous matching funds from the National Park Service's American Battlefield Protection Program battlefield interpretation grants.

The exhibit will run September 19, 2026 through September 30, 2026 at the Killingly Public Library, 25 Westcott Road, Danielson, CT and is free to the public.

Hours:

Monday 9:30am - 5:00pm

Tuesday 9:30am - 6:30pm

Wednesday 9:30am - 6:30pm

Thursday 9:30am - 6:30pm

Friday 9:30am - 5:00pm

Saturday 9:30am - 2:00pm

The American Revolution Experience launched online in its first digital-only iteration during the summer of 2022 to rapid acclaim and received a Bronze Award in the Education, Art, & Culture division of the second annual Anthem Awards, an initiative of the Webby Awards celebrating purpose and mission-driven work. It was also a finalist in the "People's Choice" category of the Webbys themselves.

"The overwhelming response to the American Revolution Experience perfectly illustrates the passion of DAR members and chapters, as they look to introduce their communities to the remarkable men and women who rose to the challenges demanded of them along our path to liberty," said DAR President General Ginnie Sebastian Storage.

Killingly Public Library is the only library in Northeast, CT to bring this experience to our communities. Scores of libraries, historical societies and museums will host the American Revolution Experience through 2027.

About the Organizations

From a grassroots organization started by historians nearly 40 years ago, the American Battlefield Trust has grown into one of the most successful land preservation and education organizations in the nation. The Trust has protected more than 60,000 acres associated with the Revolutionary War, War of 1812 and Civil War, representing 160 sites in 25 states from Massachusetts to New Mexico. Its 350,000 members and supporters believe in the power of place and the continued relevance of our shared history to modern American society. Learn more at www.battlefields.org.

The National Society Daughters of the American Revolution was founded in 1890 to promote historic preservation, education, and patriotism. Its members are descended from the patriots who won American independence during the Revolutionary War. With nearly 190,000 members in approximately 3,000 chapters worldwide, DAR is one of the world's largest and most active service organizations.
