FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FORSYTH COUNTY SCHOOLS EARNS DOUBLE FORBES RECOGNITION AS A TOP EMPLOYER

CUMMING, GA – Forsyth County Schools has been named to two prestigious Forbes employer rankings for 2026: America's Best-In-State Employers and America's Best Large Employers. This marks the second consecutive year Forsyth County Schools has earned a spot on both lists, reflecting a sustained commitment to building a workplace where employees want to stay, contribute, and grow.

The rankings are based on an independent, large-scale survey of employees nationwide, measuring workplace environment, benefits and salaries, opportunities for professional growth, and overall job satisfaction.

According to Superintendent Mitch Young, “When our employees feel valued and supported, they are empowered to do their best work in shaping student success. Our school leaders do a fantastic job of collaborating with families and community partners to develop supportive environments in which our students and staff can thrive. This all leads to outstanding retention rates and special honors like that from Forbes magazine.”

With over 8,000 employees, Forsyth County Schools continues to invest in professional development, career growth, and collaborative leadership to ensure an unparalleled workplace that attracts and retains top talent. The district's commitment to innovation and student success has made it a model for school systems nationwide.
