

Study Abroad with Rotary Youth Exchange!

Rotary
Youth Exchange

Are you a high school student interested in a life-changing global adventure? The La Crosse Area Rotary Clubs are looking for motivated students who want to attend high school and live abroad in one of over 40 participating countries. Both long-term school year and short-term summer programs are available.

This program offers a unique opportunity to immerse yourself in a new culture, learn a language, and build global leadership skills. Room, board, tuition, and a monthly stipend are covered by the host Rotary Club.
