Your voice is one of your most powerful tools for self-advocacy! In Mic Check: Using Your Voice for Self-Advocacy, participants will hear directly from PaTTAN Youth Engagement Specialists as they share their personal disability journeys, experiences with self-advocacy, and how they learned to use their voices to communicate what they need, want, and value.

Participants will explore

- ✓ What self-advocacy means and why it matters
- ✓ Practical strategies for developing self-advocacy skills in school, work, relationships, and everyday life
- ✓ Real-life stories, open discussion, and opportunities for reflection
- ✓ Ways to communicate needs and identify strengths to become more confident advocates for themselves

Presenters:

PaTTAN Youth Engagement Specialists.
