

Gonzales ISD Progress Report and Report Card

To access your student's progress reports and report cards, visit www.gonzalesisd.net.

Once on the district website go to: Parent & Student Resources, Skyward Family Access.

This account is the same account that was used when registering the student for school. If login information has been forgotten please reach out the campus or PEIMS office for support. Please ensure that the student's login is not being used. Report cards are only viewable within the guardian's account.

The progress report or report card will be created. By selecting “View Report” the document will generate as a PDF. This document can be printed for personal use.

For paper copies of report cards, a request must be made in writing to the campus registrar. A request form can be found on the GISD registration page. All printed report cards will be sent home with the student or available for pick up at the campus by the legal guardian. No report cards will be mailed home.
