

SPECIAL EDUCATION SPOTLIGHT

September 2026

UPCOMING NEURODIVERSITY AWARENESS DATES OCTOBER

Awareness Month for:

- Down Syndrome
- National Disability Employment
- Learning Disabilities

"Together may we give our children the roots to grow and the wings to fly."
Anonymous Proverb

INFORMATION & RESOURCES ACCESS POINTS

Access points is a framework that allow diverse learners to engage meaningfully in common classroom activities. This framework changes the question from "Can this student do this task?" to "How can we make this task accessible?"

It treats differentiation as a core strategy rather than an afterthought, which helps to remove barriers during the lesson planning process.

To explore access points for a variety of activities, access the link below.

Link to Access Points for Common Activities