Crisis Prevention Institute (CPI): Nonviolent Crisis Intervention (NCI)

DESCRIPTION

Anyone who may come in contact with difficult student behavior can benefit from this training. From a raised voice to a physical assault, all levels of intervention are addressed. The Nonviolent Crisis Intervention® training program keeps school staff prepared for everyday challenges and serious emergencies.

The emphasis of this training is on verbal intervention strategies and how to defuse behavior before it becomes a crisis. Even if your school's policies prohibit physical intervention, it is critical that staff have the skills and confidence to manage the crucial time between when the incident erupts and when security professionals arrive on the scene.

NISER has moved to the blended learning model of CPI instruction in which participants complete both an online portion and a classroom portion of the training. Access to the online portion will be sent when participants register for the training and must be completed prior to attending the classroom session. Please allow two hours for the online portion.
