2026-2027 School Profile

COMMUNITY PROFILE

The Borough of Sayreville, the home to Sayreville War Memorial High School, is a suburban community located in Middlesex County, 25 miles south of New York City and seven miles east of New Brunswick. Because of its proximity to the New York Metropolitan area, the population has grown from 10,000 in 1950 to approximately 45,000 in 2020. To accommodate the school-age population, there are four public elementary schools, one upper elementary and one middle school, in addition to the high school. Sayreville is the home of such nationally known industries as Commercial Metals Company, E.I. DuPont de Nemours & Company, Sabert Corporation, and Sysco Guest Supply, Inc.

ACCREDITATION

Sayreville War Memorial High School is accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the New Jersey Department of Education.

2015 Newsweek "America's Top High Schools" Beating the Odds 2015: Top High Schools for Low-Income Students. Newsweek's "Beating the Odds" list seeks to identify schools that do an excellent job of preparing their students for college while also overcoming the obstacles posed by students at an economic disadvantage. Sayreville has been recognized and named a school that meets Newsweek's equity measure by helping low-income students score above average on state assessments.

RANK IN CLASS

Rank is computed according to the recommendations of the National Association of Secondary School Principals. All students are ranked at the end of the junior year, and again at the end of the seventh semester. All courses are included.

Sayreville War Memorial High School is proud of the students of the CLASS OF 2026 for their acceptance to some highly competitive colleges and universities.
