School-Parent Compact

Locust Fork High School, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (ESSA), agree that this compact outlines how parents, school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help students achieve the State's high standards.

This school-parent compact is in effect during the school year 2026-2027.

Required School-Parent Compact Provisions

School Responsibilities

Locust Fork High School will:

1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows: LFHS is a SACS accredited school and adheres to the Alabama State Department of Education and Blount County School District for their curriculum guidelines. Students' individual needs are met through the curriculum and State approved diploma options.
2. Hold Parent-teacher conferences when requested during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement.
3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress. Specifically, the school will provide reports as follows: Report cards will be sent home every nine weeks. Progress reports will be sent home at the midpoint of each nine weeks. Student's grades are always available online with PowerSchool and Schoology.
4. Provide parents with reasonable access to staff. Staff will be available for consultations with parents by appointment, email, or by phone. Additional information is available at locustforkhighhorns.com

5. Provide parents the opportunity to volunteer their time, or services during the fiscal school year. Opportunities exist for events such as: Parent Involvement Annual Meeting, Beta & Mu Alpha Theta receptions, Health Fair, Advanced Placement Information Meeting, Homecoming Week Activities and May Day.
6. Ensure regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and to the extent practicable, in a language that family members can understand. This communication comes in the form of emails, Remind messaging, mass call outs with info on how to communicate with the school, website updates, Facebook posts and responses.

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Monitoring attendance.
- Making sure that homework is completed.
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my children's education.
- Promoting positive use of my child's extracurricular time.
- Staying informed about my child's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district either received by my child or by mail and responding, as appropriate.
- Serving, to the extent possible, on advisory groups, such as Title I advisory committees and parental involvement committees.
- We as parents understand that options are made available to me to volunteer my services at my child's school. I will utilize this opportunity when possible.

Student Responsibilities

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards. Specifically, we will:

- Arrive to school on a timely manner
- Strive to keep my attendance in good standards
- Give to my parents or Guardian all notices and information received by me from my school
- I will communicate with my Teachers, Counselor, or school Administrator if I require assistance in academic subjects.
- I will strive to demonstrate good character traits such as: Respect, Responsibility, Caring, Citizenship, Fairness, & Trustworthiness.
