Drama Company Contract 2026-2027

1. Commitment to Drama Company

Participation in Drama Company is a top priority and takes precedence over other extracurricular activities. If you are accepted into the company, please avoid signing up for any clubs or activities that may conflict with rehearsals. If conflicts arise, we may need to reconsider your participation.

2. Be a Positive Role Model

As a member of our Drama Company, you represent Golden Eagle pride. This means being kind and respectful during club meetings, in your classrooms, and on the playground. We also ask that you stay on top of your schoolwork and homework. Misbehavior may lead to removal from the company.

3. Attendance at Rehearsals and Events

Please attend all meetings, rehearsals, fundraisers, and performances as scheduled. It is important that families keep track of the calendar, and students should share memos with their parents and ensure they know when and where to be. While we understand that life events like doctor appointments or vacations happen, we ask that you prioritize rehearsals. Missing more than two rehearsals (except in cases of emergency) could result in being dismissed from the company.

4. Meet Deadlines

To ensure a smooth production, we ask that you meet all deadlines, including permission slips, costume submissions, and the learning of lines, songs, and choreography. A commitment to your role is crucial—those who do not follow through will not be able to participate in the performance.

5. Costume Responsibilities

Students will receive costume details early in the process and may be asked to purchase or create a costume based on these guidelines. Please be prepared to follow these instructions closely.

6. Timely Arrival and Pickup

Punctuality is important for the success of our rehearsals. Please arrive on time, stay for the entire rehearsal, and be picked up promptly at the scheduled time. Repeated late pickups (more than 10 minutes) may result in removal from the company, as Mr. English and Mrs. Duarte have other commitments following rehearsals.

We're excited to have you as part of our Drama Company and look forward to creating something amazing together!

Please fill out and return at auditions.
