

TechLink's Autism Transition Pathways

Oct. 22, 2026 • 8 a.m.-2 p.m.

HACC, Central Pennsylvania's Community College
One HACC Drive • Harrisburg, PA 17110

Are you unsure of what comes next? Attend TechLink's Autism Transition Pathways to uncover your options after high school.

Students on the autism spectrum and their supporters, including parents or guardians, are invited to attend this workshop to understand the transition from high school to college or career. The workshop offers the chance to learn about all the opportunities, support and HACC services available to students and their support systems.

The information-packed and fun-filled day includes:

- Keynote speaker Mickey Rowe, a Broadway actor with autism
- College and career exploration
- Campus tours and interactions with HACC staff
- An exploration of post-secondary opportunities, services and self-advocacy
- A panel discussion with HACC students with autism
- Breakfast and lunch

Students must be accompanied by a parent, guardian or counselor.
