Austin Road Middle PTO

Meet The Candidate

PTO President Candidate Jazzmon Edmundson

Parent of Nylah A (6th Grade)

Who Am I

My name is Jazzmon Edmundson

I’m a Mother, a Certified Professional Life Coach & Energy Healer. I have a background in Real Estate, leadership, community support, and youth mentorship I’m committed to helping students feel seen, supported, and capable of success

What I’m Running For

Position: PTO President (2026–2027)

As President, my focus will be to:
Keep the PTO organized and consistent
Strengthen collaboration between families, staff, and the community
Make it easier for parents/guardians to get involved in realistic ways

My Why

I want to serve because I care about:

Build
Building a school culture that feels welcoming and connected

Support
Supporting teachers and staff with practical help and appreciation

Create
Creating opportunities for students to feel confident, encouraged, and included

Bottom Line:
Making sure PTO efforts are clear, purposeful, and transparent

PTO Ideas & Plans (2026–2027)

When elected, I'd like to help implement:

Clear communication
-Simple monthly PTO update (events, needs, how to help)
-Easy sign-ups for volunteering (even 30–60 minutes helps)

Inclusive family engagement
-Mix of daytime + evening options
-Low-cost/free events so more families can participate

Teacher & staff support
-Planned appreciation moments
-"Wish list" support (classroom needs, supplies, small surprises)

Purpose-driven fundraising
-Fewer fundraisers, but better organized
-Clear goals: what we're raising money for and how it helps students

Community partnerships
-Local business sponsors/donations for events, supplies, and student incentives
