

Independent Studies in Cultural Immersion

- Optional class for sophomores and juniors
- The class goal is to use student research and writing to gain a deeper understanding of the places they will visit
- Student will meet with Mrs. Lubbers five times between January to April and develop a research proposal based on a topic relevant to the trip
- Before the May student and parent informational meeting, students will show their completed projects

