

How are Upper School Trips Different?

- Students are required to have their phones with them the entire trip and are welcome to use their phones when appropriate
- Parents may pick up their student from the final destination and continue on a family trip
- The travel company provides an itinerary and Shelton customizes it based on our students' interests
- The trip focuses on doing and activities, not just seeing important places

