SENECA VALLEY TO WELCOME TAMARA TUNIE

JACKSON TWP., PA (Feb. 10, 2026) – In honor of Black History Month, Seneca Valley students in grades 9–12 will have the opportunity to hear from award-winning actress and vocalist, Ms. Tamara Tunie during a special in-school program on Friday, Feb. 13.

A native of Homestead, Pennsylvania, Ms. Tunie earned her Bachelor of Arts from Carnegie Mellon University in 1981 and has built an accomplished career across stage, film and television. Her work includes performances on Broadway and notable roles in “Flight,” “The Devil's Advocate,” “Snake Eyes,” “Wall Street,” “Beyond the Gates,” “Law & Order,” “As the World Turns” and many more.

Currently serving as an Artist in Residence at the Manchester Craftsmen’s Guild in Pittsburgh, Ms. Tunie has graciously offered to visit Seneca Valley to share her talents, personal stories and professional journey. Her visit will be especially meaningful for students involved in the Performing Arts and those pursuing the SV Career Pathway in Arts, Communication and Media.

During the program, students will learn about Ms. Tunie’s life, training and rise to prominence in the entertainment industry. The experience will also include a vocal performance by Ms. Tunie, followed by a student Q&A session, providing a unique opportunity for inspiration, insight and engagement.
