1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

During the 2025–26 school year, the Fremont Union High School District utilized Arts and Music in Schools (AMS) Proposition 28 funding to maintain and enhance the District"s comprehensive Visual and Performing Arts opportunities for students across its five comprehensive high schools and community day school. Districtwide, Proposition 28 funds supported Art, Music, and Drama course offerings, as well as stipends for staff who provided additional arts opportunities beyond the school day, including marching band, color guard, winter percussion, drama productions, and vocal music. Funding was also used to purchase supplies and equipment that supported Art, Music, and Drama programs across District schools. In accordance with Proposition 28 reporting requirements, this report summarizes the District"s use of AMS funds during the 2025–26 school year, including the number of full-time equivalent teachers, classified personnel, and teaching aides supported; the number of students served; and the number of school sites providing arts education programs supported by AMS funding.
