Why Are We Here?

- Annual declining enrollment has completely shifted the narrative.
- Over the past decade Broward County Public Schools has lost more than 48,000 students.
- This loss translates to more than $430 million less in funding.
- Currently, the District has over 61,000 empty student seats.
- We cannot sustain the costs of operating schools that are not full.

Benchmark Day Enrollment Trend

Five-Year Enrollment Loss = -27,146
Percentage Loss = -13.3%

What Is Redefining Our Schools?

Redefining Our Schools is a multi-year process to align our number of schools with our student population, program offerings, and staffing needs.

Possible changes may include:

- Combining schools
- Changing school boundaries
- Changing the grades offered at a school
- Moving or adding programs
- Finding a new use for a school building
- Closing and repurposing a school

These options have been included in prior Redefining Our Schools implementation years.

Where Are We in the 2026-27 Process?

- The School Board reviewed the current proposals on August 25, 2026.
- The proposals are being studied and discussed with the community.
- District staff are reviewing enrollment, transportation, programs, services, buildings, and costs.
- Community feedback will help shape the next steps.

"No final decisions have been made as of tonight's discussion."

Considerations for Repurposed Sites

Possible to serve the community may include:

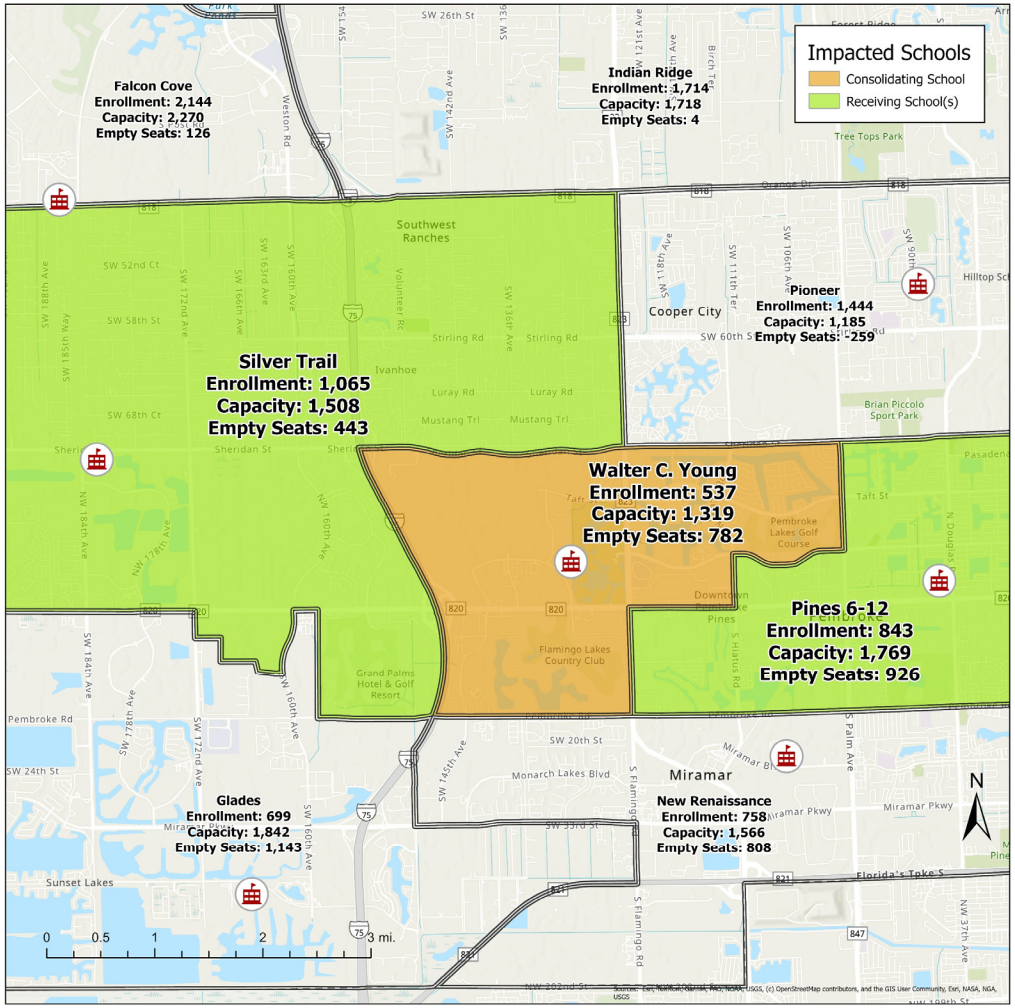

- Park or Recreation Space
- Community Center
- Affordable Housing
- Business or Workforce Hub
- Another Community-Supported Use

"No decision has been made about the future use of a school site. We want to hear from you on which option would provide the most value to the community."
