

IROQUOIS HIGH SCHOOL

DAILY BULLETIN- SEPTEMBER 24, 2026

Today is a F day!

- Attention all students and staff, the Unified Bocce team opens their season today at home against Clarence at 4:15 on the turf field. Come cheer on the Unified team as they go for another sectional title. Go Unified Red Hawks!
- If you've ever considered a future career in education, then the 3rd Annual Careers in Education Conference is for you! On October 13th at Daemen University, students spend the day in various workshops learning about different aspects of the world of education. Whether you've considered a job as a teacher or other support person such as a Counselor, Speech Pathologist, or something else, this opportunity is for you! Stop down to Student Support for a permission slip if interested in attending.
- If you are interested in recycling, energy conservation or in teaching elementary students how to save energy – consider joining STEM, Savings Through Energy Management.
 - We meet in the Library every Wednesday and Friday mornings at 7:30.
- If you're interested in hearing about some great books, join Iroquois Reads! We meet in the library every Thursday morning at 7:30 to discuss books we've read. You can talk about a book or just listen to hear about what other students are reading.
- Character Counts Club will be hosting their first meeting this Friday during homeroom. Come join us in room 191 near the bookstore. We will be discussing our yearly events and ways to continue to spread kindness throughout the school year. Please see Mrs. Lewandowski or Mrs. Wojda (void-duh) in Student Supports with any questions.
- Homecoming Guest forms are available from the main office starting September 21. They must be completed and returned by October 13. Guest forms must be approved by an administrator before purchasing tickets.

- Attention student drivers:

Parking passes are available from Mrs. Lopez in the main office. ALL student drivers must have a parking tag displayed in their vehicle. Seniors who have painted a parking spot must ALSO apply for a parking tag.

- Attention seniors:

Senior privilege forms are available from Mrs. Lopez in the main office. In order to qualify for senior priv, you must:

1. have above an 80% overall average
2. be passing all of your classes (or passed all 4th quarter classes)
3. have completed 24 service hours
