THE COMMUNITY

The Wallkill Central School District is located in both Orange and Ulster County with Administrative Offices in the hamlet of Wallkill. Residents of the District enjoy the advantage of a beautiful environment combined with the convenience of being located midway between New York City and Albany on the western side of the Hudson River. The Beacon rail station (15 minutes away) offers an easy commute by train to New York City. Historic landmarks in the area include West Point and George Washington's Headquarters, and colleges such as SUNY New Paltz, Marist, Vassar, and Mount Saint Mary are close by.

Outdoor recreation areas include the Mohonk Preserve, as well as the Shawangunk Mountains. Our District is surrounded by fertile farmlands of the Wallkill River Valley.

THE SCHOOL

The Wallkill Central School District serves approximately 2,900 students from the Towns of Montgomery, Shawangunk, Plattekill, Gardiner, and Newburgh. There are approximately 900 students enrolled at Wallkill Senior High School. WSHS meets state requirements and is staffed by certified faculty. The faculty at WSHS work to support students and set them up for success upon graduation.
