President's Letter

Dear Friends of Stepinac:

I want to welcome you to the 2008 production of Singin' In The Rain. I am sure that this enjoyable tale of the search for love, set in the 1920s, will entertain you and bring a smile to your face.

Our actors and actresses have worked long and hard under the direction of our director, Mr. Frank Portanova, our choreographer, Mrs. Charlotte Newman and our producer, Mr. Sunderland and their assistants. Set in a simpler time in our history, the story tells the tale of the introduction of talking pictures and true love found off stage. I guarantee a memorable and enjoyable evening.

Thank you again, now sit back and enjoy the show.

Sincerely,

Rev. Msgr. Anthony D. Marchitelli

Note from the Director

They say confession is good for the soul. Here goes. Prior to selecting this year's musical, I had never seen the film, Singin' in the Rain. Blasphemous! I know. I always envisioned it as a musical of little substance whose claim to fame was drops of meaningless rain and Gene Kelly's tap shoes. How wrong I was.

The musical is filled with characters that are seemingly flat and one dimensional. However, their appearance only serves as a foil to a greater reality. Our characters are riddled with insecurity. Our debonair leading man, Don Lockwood, masks his fear with a fraudulent dignity. He questions his talent. He claims to be "just a log of a dumb show." Yet, he flashes a sweet smile to secure the love of his adoring public.

Our two leading ladies are also experiencing internal conflicts. Kathy Selden is an actress on the "legitimate" stage. She at first resorts to ridicules and sarcasm to conceal the disappointment at her own lack of success. She must present the façade of a woman in control of her destiny. Unfortunately, she is quite powerless and forced to even hide her talents. Meanwhile, Lina Lamont personifies vanity. She allows her ambition to take precedence over her values. Her fear of remaining unloved drives her to seek vengeance.

Lucky for Don and Kathy, they do not eventually succumb to their fears. Their principles are not sacrificed. Their inherent goodness remains in tact as they both mature from their original defensive and insecure postures. This is best illustrated in the iconic moment from the musical: the rain scene. Don and Kathy risk it all despite how undignified or illegitimate they may now appear.

Our students will undoubtedly face moments of self doubt in life. Whether it is professional or personal, they will need to face these uncertainties. Rather than belie their sense of ethics and hide behind their egos and wounded pride, we hope, like Don and Kathy, they will be able to drop their umbrellas, embrace the rain, and sing and dance in it.

Thanks from the Director

I need to thank many for their contributions to ...Rain. Thanks to Msgr. Marchitelli and Mr. Carty for their dedication to the arts program. Deepest thanks to Fr. Quealy, for his extraordinary years of service to the drama club.

Special thanks to our producer, Keith "Sonny" Sunderland, for his willingness to accept a challenge. Thanks to our musical director, Drew Rienstra for his unbridled enthusiasm. Many thanks to our Stage Crew moderator, Sarah Daoud for leading our crew. Sincere thanks to our efficient tech manager, Kevin Vachna '05, for always being ahead of the game. Thanks to Kim Hooper for organizing our educational projects. More thanks to Liz Haydock for always remembering the details and much more! Thanks to Roxanne Calvello and Patricia Murphy for always offering their services for many projects. More thanks to Nancy Bisogno and Maria Chiocchio for their assistance with the choreography and more. Deepest thanks to John Moran, who went above and beyond the call of duty. To Justin Boccitto for his genial nature with our students. Thanks to Dr. & Mrs. Maddalo for keeping us on our feet! Thanks to Michele & the Westlake Players!

Thanks to designers June Ricciardi and Joe Manzo for their high standards and for sharing their passion for their craft. More thanks to all the alumni crew, especially Derek Ortiz '01 and Mark Kaszczak '07, who always offer assistance and advice. Thanks to the numerous alumni/ae who volunteer their time each year to raise monies for our club. Thanks to Sal & Mike '94 at Magic Moments!

Many thanks to all the parents and guardians for their support of the show. Jackie and JoAnne – 8 years! From the bottom of my heart: thank you. More thanks to the Amato, Vega, Tollinchi, Tahan, and Bunting families. Thanks also to Allan Gruet, Josh Clayton, George Puello, and the Westchester Broadway Theatre for their generosity. More thanks to Jim. Sincere thanks to the faculty (Mr. Hogan, Mr. Babuin, & Ms. Bacich) and students who produced the exhibits for our lobby. More thanks to our Berkeley interns, Michael Austin, Mrs. Dell'Accio, Ms. Watson, Ms. Korson, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Cupertino, Mr. Caramelle, Sr. Breda, Gilberto, Ceasar, & Rich. More thanks to Lady and Mens' Crusaders for their generosity.

Congratulations to the third annual recipients of our Major Bowes Award for their contribution to the theatre arts at Stepinac: Fr. Bernard McMahon, faithful Stepinac dramatics moderator and mentor to countless Stepinac thespians; & Richard '58 and Peter Fitzgerald '65, presidents and founders of Sound Associates and generous benefactors of our theatre program.

Thank you to this great cast: You have been most cooperative and kind-hearted! Thanks to the entire crew for their diligence and strong work-ethic. Seniors: Your selfless spirit and mature attitudes have set a great example for all the many new underclassmen.

Finally, my deepest thanks to Charlotte Newman, our choreographer and miracle worker for turning our boys into regular hoofers. As always your faith and "secret" disposition allow us to step into the rain with a smile on our face!

The Production Staff

Sonny Sunderland (Producer)

Sonny is currently the Dean of Students at Stepinac. He has been at his alma mater since 2002 and enjoys working with the Drama Club that once encouraged his theatrical ambitions when he was a student. While at Stepinac he has produced such shows as Our Town, Show Boat, A Few Good Men, The Scarlet Pimpernel, The Man Who Came To Dinner, Little Shop of Horrors, Inherit the Wind, Jekyll & Hyde, The Manchurian Candidate and Thoroughly Modern Millie. Sonny graduated from Marist College with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Public Administration. Prior to Stepinac, he worked at the Emelin Theatre in Mamaroneck as the Assistant Managing Director, Children Programs Coordinator and produced numerous professional and original theatrical productions. He is currently studying for a Masters in School Administration and Supervision at Touro College in New York City. Sonny would like to thank the production staff for their countless hours and dedication which made this production possible, his mom for her support and his dad and brother for their technical advice.

Frank Portanova (Director)

Frank, Vice-Principal of Academics & Curriculum, is excited to be working once again with the Drama Club students following many previous productions at the Major Bowes. He is proud to be directing on the very stage on which he performed as a student at Stepinac. In fact, his endeavors on the Stepinac stage inspired him to pursue his interest in theatre. This led to featured roles in numerous plays and musicals. During the summer, he continues to direct and perform in alumni theatre productions. (Check our school's website this summer for more information.)

Charlotte Newman (Choreographer)

Mrs. Newman is thrilled to be back for her ninth year choreographing the Drama Club's production of Singin' in the Rain. She previously choreographed South Pacific, Bye, Bye Birdie, Show Boat, The Scarlet Pimpernel, Little Shop of Horrors, Jekyll & Hyde, and Thoroughly Modern Millie. She received the 2007 Helen Hayes award for Best Opening Number and was nominated for a 2007 Helen as Best Choreographer for Thoroughly Modern Millie. Charlotte has also choreographed numerous other musicals for various high schools, middle schools, and community theatre programs. She has studied tap, jazz and ballet for over twenty years. She attended the University of Connecticut where she studied theatre dance for two years. Charlotte has performed in many high school and community theater productions and also danced professionally for MTV productions. Her experience in dance extends to choreographing beauty pageants and high school dance teams and currently teaches dance in Dutchess County. She would like to thank Brian and Julian for all their hard work and determination. She would also like to thank her loving husband for his support.

Drew Rienstra (Music Director)

Hailing from the West Coast, Drew is excited to be working with Stepinac yet again on one of his favorite scores! He was seen last summer playing in the band for the alumni production of Smokey Joe's Café. Recently, he music directed, arranged and wrote additional music for his show Christmas Wishes, which enjoyed a two month run at Shawnee Playhouse in the Poconos this past December. His revue Looks Like Love was featured at the Helen Hayes Theatre in 2007. He is a teaching artist with the White Plains Performing Arts Center. Recent projects include You're a Good Man Charlie Brown, Pippin, Sweeney Todd, Little Shop of Horrors, Into the Woods, Fiddler on the Roof, The Wizard of Oz and Roger's and Hammerstein's Cinderella. He can be found in and around New York City, accompanying up and coming performers. Thanks to the entire production team. Dream!

Joe Manzo (Costume Designer)

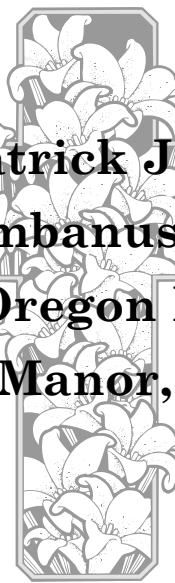

Joe has costumed spring musicals at Stepinac for several years. Among his accomplishments are three nominations for Outstanding Achievement in Costume Design. He won his second award for last year's Thoroughly Modern Millie. He has two other nominations for work while at Briarcliff High School. Special thanks go to the six intern students from Berkeley College, White Plains campus and its administration. Also to Frank for raising the bar each year and challenging everyone associated with the spring productions.

Good Luck Veronika

Class of '88

Kevin Vachna (Technical Manager)

Kevin is a graduate of Stepinac, class of 2005. Currently working for his degree in Secondary Education at Manhattan College, he has continued to offer his help as Technical Manager of the productions. As a student, Kevin has been involved with the productions of Show Boat, A Few Good Men, The Scarlet Pimpernel, The Man Who Came To Dinner, and Little Shop of Horrors. He has worked as a returning alumnus on Jekyll & Hyde, The Manchurian Candidate, and The Crucible.

June Ricciardi (Scenic Designer)

June is thrilled to be working with the Drama Club on the scenic design for Singin' in the Rain. Previous design credits include The Scarlet Pimpernel, Little Shop of Horrors, Jekyll and Hyde, Thoroughly Modern Mille, The Man Who Came to Dinner, The Manchurian Candidate, Inherit the Wind, and The Crucible. June's work has been honored with four consecutive Helen Hayes Theatre nominations for Outstanding Scenic Design. June has been part of the Drama Club production team since 2004. Her daughter, Danielle, is an alumna of the program as well.

Sarah Daoud (Stage Crew Moderator)

Sarah is a faculty member at Stepinac and is also in charge of the Senior Prom and the Italian Club. She has been Stage Crew Moderator for seven years. She would like to thank the crew, Kevin and Mr. Moran for their great job. She would also like to thank Mr. Portanova for this great opportunity and her daughters for being so supportive.

Roxanne Calvello (Assistant to the Director)

Roxanne is also a science teacher here at Stepinac and chairperson of the science department. This is her sixth year with the Drama Club having worked on Show Boat, A Few Good Men, The Scarlet Pimpernel, The Man Who Came To Dinner, Little Shop of Horrors, Inherit the Wind, Jekyll & Hyde, The Manchurian Candidate and Thoroughly Modern Millie. Roxanne would like to express that it has been a wonderful experience working with a terrific group of colleagues and such talented students.

Liz Haydock (Assistant to the Director)

Liz is thrilled to be a part of the Drama Club, and has enjoyed assisting Frank in her first production with the Stepinac Theater. Past credits include: Pace University Theater (Stage Manager), former Helen Hayes Theater in Nyack (Wardrobe Asst. and Crew), and The Broadway Training Center (Lighting Designer). She wishes to thank Frank for this wonderful opportunity and looks forward to gracing the stage this summer in the alumni production.

Patricia Murphy (Assistant to the Director)

Patricia is Director of Technology at Stepinac. Her work with the Drama Club ranges from the costume room to the music room to the stage during each rehearsal. In addition, she has performed in Babes in Arms, Songs for a New World & Smokey Joe's Café with the Stepinac Alumni Theatre during the summers. Patricia would like to wish all the seniors good luck and thank the production staff for allowing her to be part of the Major Bowes experience.

Maria Chiocchio (Assistant to the Choreographer)

Maria is Director of Guidance at Stepinac. She is thrilled to be assisting Mrs. Newman again. In addition to working as a choreographer on various productions, she also sings in her church choir and performs as well. She has appeared in Stepinac Alumni Theater productions Songs for a New World and Smokey Joe's Café.

Nancy Bisogno (Assistant to the Choreographer)

Nancy is chairperson of the English department at Stepinac. She also is moderator of the school yearbook. She is happy to be using her tap shoes again after many years of dance experience. She has truly enjoyed working with the Drama Club and looks forward to future productions.

John Moran (Assistant to the Technical Manager)

John is the band director at Stepinac. He has been a part of numerous productions at Stepinac, as a crew member, an actor and a member of the orchestra as a student, alumnus and as a teacher. John is very happy to be helping the crew of Singin' in the Rain.

Anthony Caramale (Assistant to the Producer/Director of Security)

Anthony is a member of the faculty and Technology Department at Stepinac. He has also been a valuable member of the staff at the Westchester Beach Club where he has been working during the summer for several years. Anthony's crowning theatrical experience was during the 2005 Talent Show with Mr. Babuin when they performed their show stopping rendition of The Blues Brothers. Anthony would like to say that he takes his job as Director of Security very serious, "so no funny business"!

CONGRATULATIONS!

*The play is here and so we near the end of our high school careers. But now
we start a new with the lives we choose during our college years.*

*Soul searching away from home, missing
our past but much to excited to ever look back. We make our stretch, that final leap, to the future we seek.*

Congratz Seniors '08!!

Good luck to underclassmen with remaining high school years.

A special thank you to Mr. Portanova,

*Mrs. Newman and Mr. Sunderland
for all that you do.*

TO THE CAST & CREW:

*All we do is dream of you
The whole day through!
With the dawn, we still go on
Thinking of you.*

*Your every ad
Your every dance
Your every song
You ever sing
February, March, April, & May.*

*When skies are gray
When skies are blue
All we do is dream of you!*

You're the cat's meow!

Mr. Portanova, Mrs. Newman,
Mr. Sunderland

Dear Seniors in the Cast & Crew:

As you embark on
a new chapter in your life,
always remember to ...

*"Laugh at those clouds!"
"Keep the sun in your hearts!"
"Walk with a happy refrain!"
"Keep a smile on your face!"*

Your class truly set a great example for all the underclassmen this year.
Thank you for the great legacy of teamwork and good old-fashioned sportsmanship!

"Keep singin' and dancing in the rain!"

With respect and admiration,
Mr. Portanova, Mrs. Newman,
Mr. Sunderland
