President's Letter

Dear Friends of Stepinac:

I want to welcome you to the 2010 production of The Drowsy Chaperone. Once again Stepinac is performing a "regional premiere" of this show within a show. I am sure that you will be greatly entertained.

Our actors and actresses have worked long and hard under the direction of our director, Mr. Portanova, our choreographer, Mrs. Newman and our producer, Mr. Sunderland and their assistants. I guarantee that this will be a memorable and enjoyable event.

Thank you again for your support, now sit back and enjoy the show.

Sincerely,

Rev. Msgr. Anthony D. Marchitelli
President

Director's Note

---

*But often, in the world's most crowded streets,
But often, in the din of strife,
There rises an unspeakable desire
After the knowledge of our buried life.*

- Matthew Arnold

Recently, I became aware of an MTV program entitled THE BURIED LIFE. It follows a young group of twenty somethings that travel around the country in a bus. They have a rather lengthy list of things they would like to accomplish before death: a bucket list of sorts. While accomplishing their various dreams, they also help strangers complete tasks thought to be impossible whether out of fear or unreality.

Too bad our central character, MAN IN CHAIR, did not have the opportunity to be on this television program. He inhabits his own insular world as means of living his dreams and escaping his glum state. Unfortunately, outside of his apartment, his inner self remains buried. So, the man in chair needs to find some artificial means of reviving what lies dormant: he plays his records.

Undoubtedly, our students have many hidden talents. But for fear of lack of acceptance and for fear of being mocked, they remain like the MAN. They create a world that only exists unto them; a world that is not shared with anyone; a world that isolates them further from an intimacy that is essential to human development: a sharing of common interests that fosters an intellectual, social, and spiritual growth. The ability to celebrate what brings us joy in our lives with a group of peers is a cornerstone of human happiness. It is this communion with others that truly allows us to deal with the "din of strife" that can paint our lives with "blue" streaks of melancholy.

So during this Easter season, let's hope that all of us - young and old alike - will sincerely resurrect whatever desires and interests have remained hidden from others. For unlike the MAN, there is no need to stop dreaming once the record comes to an end. Let it play on.

The Production Staff

Nancy Bisogno (Costume Liaison)

Nancy is chairperson of the English Department at Stepinac. She also is moderator of the school yearbook. She has truly enjoyed working with the Drama Club and looks forward to future productions.

Roxanne Calvello (Assistant to the Director)

Roxanne is also a science teacher here at Stepinac and chairperson of the Science Department. This is her eighth year with the Drama Club having worked on Show Boat, A Few Good Men, The Scarlet Pimpernel, The Man Who Came To Dinner, Little Shop of Horrors, Inherit the Wind, Jekyll & Hyde, The Manchurian Candidate, Thoroughly Modern Millie, The Crucible, Singin' In The Rain, One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, Curtains, and My Sister Eileen. Roxanne would like to express that it has been a wonderful experience working with a terrific group of colleagues and such talented students. She would also like to thank her family for their support and picking up the slack at home while she was at the theater.

Anthony Caramelle (Assistant to the Producer/Director of Security)

Anthony is a member of the Technology Department at Stepinac. He also has worked summers at the Westchester Beach Club for as long as anyone has known him. Anthony's crowning theatrical experience was during the 2005 Talent Show with Mr. Babuin when they performed their show stopping rendition of The Blues Brothers. Anthony has re-launched his top secret, private firm under its new name Take It Easy Securities, still specializing in personal and lobby protection.

Sarah Daoud (Stage Crew Moderator)

Sarah is a faculty member at Stepinac and is also in charge of the Senior Prom and the Italian Club. She has been Stage Crew Moderator for nine years. She would like to thank the crew for their great work. She would also like to thank her family for their great support.

Joe Lore (Set Architect)

Joe is a graduate of Stepinac from the class of 2002 and an alumnus of the Drama Club. He is proud to return to work on the very stage on which he performed as a student and bring his design background and skills to this year's production. He has also been known to "stumble along" in various roles in Alumni Theatre Productions and the Annual Alumni Cabaret. Joe would like to thank the Director and Producer for the opportunity to be a part of this production and wishes the cast and crew BOLD FEETS!

Joe Manzo (Costume Designer)

Last year Joe underwent his third major cardiac surgery during production time. This one replaced his aortic valve and corrected a triple bypass. Surviving all that, he is excited to be back for this year's splendid show and again is using the skills of some of his students from Berkeley College as interns in the Wardrobe Department. He wishes to thank all the folks who finished the work for Curtains and congratulates the cast and Director for their excellence and stamina at The International Fringe Festival in Scotland last summer.

KeriAnne Murphy (Production Stage Manager)

KeriAnne is thrilled to be apart of the production staff for her first Stepinac show. She brings much experience on various professional and college productions. KeriAnne graduated from SUNY Plattsburgh in 2008 with a degree in theatrical production and stage managing. She is also excited to be working on the show with her favorite production staff member, her mother.

Patricia Murphy (Sound Design)

Patricia is Director of Technology at Stepinac. Her work with the Drama Club ranges from the costume room to music room to stage during each rehearsal. In addition, she has performed in Babes in Arms, Songs for a New World, Smokey Joe's Café, and Working with the Stepinac Alumni Theatre. Patricia would like to thank her husband for managing without her.

Liz Morris (Assistant to the Director)

Liz is thrilled to be a part of the Major Bowes, and has enjoyed assisting Frank once again on the Stepinac stage. In addition, she is ecstatic to be sharing her love and passion of the theater with the students. She comes to Stepinac with much experience on various productions in the Westchester and NYC area. Liz has been on stage crew and wardrobe, in addition to being a stage manager and lighting designer. To the seniors, she wishes best of luck in the future and they will be missed. Lastly, she would like to thank Frank Portanova for this wonderful opportunity and looks forward to gracing the stage this summer in the next alumni production.

Congratulations to Mr. Sunderland and Mr. Portanova

Joseph J. De Bona '94

Charlotte Newman (Choreographer)

Charlotte is thrilled to be back as the choreographer for Stepinac. She has previously choreographed the Stepinac show for the past ten years. Charlotte has also choreographed numerous other musicals for various high schools, middle schools, and community theatre programs. She has studied tap, jazz and ballet for over thirty years. She attended the University of Connecticut where she studied theatre dance for two years. Charlotte has performed in many high school and community theater productions and also danced professionally for MTV productions. Her experience in dance extends to choreographing beauty pageants and high school dance teams and currently teaches dance in Dutchess County.

Frank Portanova (Director)

Frank, Vice-Principal of Academics & Curriculum, is excited to be working once again with the Drama Club students following many previous productions at the Major Bowes. He is proud to be directing on the very stage on which he performed as a student at Stepinac. In fact, his endeavors on the Stepinac stage inspired him to pursue his interest in theatre. During the summer, he continues to direct and perform in alumni theatre productions. (Check our school's website this summer for more information.)

June Ricciardi (Scenic Designer)

June is thrilled to be working with the Drama Club on the scenic design for The Drowsy Chaperone. Previous design credits include The Scarlet Pimpernel, Little Shop of Horrors, Jekyll and Hyde, Thoroughly Modern Mille, The Man Who Came to Dinner, The Manchurian Candidate, Inherit the Wind, The Crucible, Singin' In The Rain, One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, Curtains, and My Sister Eileen as well as Alumni Theatre productions, Company, Babes in Arms and Working. June's work has been honored with four consecutive Helen Hayes Theatre nominations for Outstanding Scenic Design. June has been part of the Drama Club production team since 2004. Her daughter, Danielle, is an alumna of the program as well.

Drew Rienstra (Music Director)

Drew is a NY-based music director, arranger, vocal coach, composer and pianist hailing from the West Coast, excited to be working again with the Stepinac team on one of his favorite shows. Recent credits include John and Jen (NYC) and The Pajama Game with Preston HS, working with Broadway choreographer Randy Skinner, as well as the Westchester premiere of 13. He just returned from music directing the European premiere of Kander and Ebb's Curtains in Scotland, again with the Stepinac team. Regional credits include the prestigious Long Lake Camp for the Arts (The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, The Wedding Singer, Grease, Starmites), Mac-Haydn Theatre (Hairspray, Phantom, A Chorus Line, High School Musical, Sound of Music, Will Rogers Follies, My Fair Lady, Seven Brides), Shawnee Playhouse (an original commissioned Christmas revue) and The Riverspace Nyack (Sweeney Todd). He worked as music supervisor for the NYS premiere of Rent this past summer. He has music directed Stepinac's award winning Singin' In The Rain and the recent National Youth Theatre Award winning Curtains. Upcoming: another summer as resident music director with Long Lake. Dream! www.drewriestra.com

Sonny Sunderland (Producer)

Sonny is the Dean of Students at Stepinac. He is honored to work with the students on the very stage that began his theatrical experience. Sonny graduated from Marist College with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Public Administration. Prior to Stepinac, he worked at the Emelin Theatre in Mamaroneck producing numerous professional and original theatrical productions. This May he will finish his Masters in School Administration and Supervision and his NYS School Building Certification.

Kevin Vachna (Technical Manager)

Kevin is a graduate of Stepinac, class of 2005. Currently working as a 9th grade English teacher and Librarian at Stepinac, he has continued to offer his help as Technical Manager of the productions. As a student, Kevin has been involved with the productions of Show Boat, A Few Good Men, The Scarlet Pimpernel, The Man Who Came To Dinner, and Little Shop of Horrors. He has worked as a returning alumnus on Jekyll and Hyde, The Manchurian Candidate, The Crucible, Singin' In The Rain, One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, Curtains, and My Sister Eileen.

Joe Venice (Production Assistant)

Joe Venice, a Stepinac graduate of the class of 2004, is thrilled to be working again in the Major Bowes. He is currently a member of the English Department and the Junior Varsity Football Coach. He has been working in theater and music for many years as a singer, songwriter and actor.
