Dear John,

Congratulations to you and the entire cast and crew on Billy Elliot. Four years ago you stepped on Stepinac's stage for the first time and now we are watching you take the stage for the last time. Although it is sad we are overjoyed with the young man they have empowered you to become. The next chapter of your life will begin for you only on a different stage. Your love, passion and determination is the force of what will lead you to success. We cannot thank Mr. Portanova and the entire drama faculty enough for making you the performer you are today. Stepinac will always be forever in our hearts along with the many friends we have made along the way. Like you said when you are on stage you leave nothing behind. Our love and support always,
