THE NEWSIES BANNER

The men who run this city are terrified because the call for fairness has been taken up by young workers in every factory and sweatshop in town. In the words of union leader Jack Kelly, "We will work with you. We will even work for you. We will be paid and treated as valuable members of your organization."

Disney NEWSIES

This is the story we wanted to write, well, tonight is the night we can. In a few hours by dawn's early light, we can fight the fight we began. This time we're in it to stay. Talk about seizing the day! Picture the trains as she rolls into ol' Santa Fe. Then tell 'em I'm on my way.

See ol' man Pulitzer snug in his bed, he don't care if we're dead or alive. Three satin pillows are under his head while we're begging for breath to survive. Joe, you can stop counting sheep, we're gonna sing ya to sleep. You've got thugs with their stick and their slugs, Yeah! But we got a promise to keep!

There's change coming once and for all! You're getting too old, too weak to keep holding on. A new world is coming for you, and Joe we is too! Til once and for all you're gone! This is for kids shining shoes on the street, with no shoes on their feet everyday. This is for guys sweating blood in the shops, while their bosses and cops look away. I'm seeing kids standing tall, glaring and raring to brawl. All of these guys who are sick of the lies getting ready to rise to the call!

We're showin' 'em once and for all, whatever they does, ain't who we was before. King Joe, you can take off your crown. We're stormin' this town, and barrelin' down the door.

THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME

© Disney

A NEW MUSICAL

BASED ON THE VICTOR HUGO NOVEL
AND SONGS FROM THE DISNEY FILM

MUSIC BY ALAN MENKEN

LYRICS BY STEPHEN SCHWARTZ

BOOK BY PETER PARNELL

From the Academy Award-winning composing team of Alan Menken (Aladdin, The Little Mermaid) & Stephen Schwartz (Wicked, Pippin) comes a lushly scored retelling of Victor Hugo's (author of Les Misérables) epic story of love, acceptance, and what it means to be a hero.

A sweeping score (accompanied by a 15 piece orchestra & 30 person choir) and powerful story make The Hunchback of Notre Dame an instant classic.

Audiences will be swept away by the magic of this truly unforgettable musical.
