

Instrumental Music Tutors

Violin, double bass and low brass

(Peripatetic and casual roles, term-time)

Role Highlights

- Join a strong and growing Music program with an innovative leader in coeducational education.
- Work with both primary and secondary students.
- Tutor individual students with the opportunity to coordinate ensembles, bands or choirs

The Role

This is an excellent opportunity to experience music tutoring in an independent school committed to the pursuit of academic and pastoral excellence in a coeducational setting, empowering students to develop their potential, becoming confident, compassionate, and committed to worthwhile service to the local and global communities.

The College is seeking expressions of interest from experienced music professionals with the following specialties:

- Violin tutor
- Double bass tutor
- Low brass tutor

The number of tutoring sessions offered will depend on the instrument and role, with students being drawn from junior and senior school.

About You

To be considered for this position, you will need to be able to demonstrate a commitment to engaging students whilst tutoring the instrument and be keen to promote and assist in the College's cocurricular Music programs. Previous music tutoring in a primary and/or secondary school setting is desirable.

You are qualified and experienced in providing vocal or instrumental tutoring and able to motivate students of differing levels of ability and make appropriate adjustments in tutoring methodology where required.

You can demonstrate your experience and ability to monitor students' progress and provide constructive feedback, as well as completing instrumental semester reports. You can also identify maintenance required on instruments and provide basic maintenance support and guidance to your students.

About All Saints'

All Saints' College is one of WA's leading coeducational independent schools, catering to students from Kindergarten to Year 12. With a focus on developing students as individuals to become confident global citizens, the College's innovative and future-focused approach to education allows students and staff to explore diverse pathways and opportunities.

Situated on Gabbiljee (Bull Creek), the College's vast and landscaped 19-hectare property features state-of-the-art facilities, integrated natural environments, contemporary learning spaces, and unique community spaces for connecting and sharing, including the College café, Wanju. ASC staff members form a core part of the diverse and welcoming College community, and, along with our students, parents and community members, contribute to that 'All Saints' feeling'—where diversity is celebrated, individuals bring their best selves, and learning through failing (or 'flearning') is encouraged.

The Benefits

We're committed to creating a workplace where talented people feel supported, valued, and inspired to thrive. That's why we offer a comprehensive suite of benefits designed to enhance your wellbeing, reward your contribution, and support your life both inside and outside of work. From financial advantages and generous leave entitlements to professional growth opportunities and a vibrant staff community, our benefits reflect our dedication to attracting and retaining exceptional staff.

- Convenient free onsite parking for all staff
- Onsite childcare centre
- Varied wellbeing initiatives and activities
- On site café and canteen
