

Long-Term Substitute Teacher - Spanish

About Saint Stephen's:

Located in beautiful Bradenton, Florida, on Florida's Gulf Coast, Saint Stephen's serves approximately 700 students in PK3 through grade twelve. Founded in 1970, Saint Stephen's is a member of the National Association of Episcopal Schools (NAES), the National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS), and the Florida Association of Independent Schools (FCIS). Saint Stephen's is "four divisions, one school," fostering connections and community across age groups. The school offers a signature Marine Science Program, with access to the Manatee River from the bayou that runs through the 35-acre campus. The STEAM center supports the Arts Conservatory program, and the Global Scholars distinction encourages students to connect with their peers from around the world. All of these programs are supported by a faculty that models lifelong learning through their curiosity, dedication, and collaborative spirit.

At Saint Stephen's, this is Our Promise:
Every child will be known, and every child will be valued.

The Opportunity:

Saint Stephen's seeks a dynamic Spanish teacher to foster student learning of the language and cultures of Spanish-speaking countries in grades 3 through 8. Candidates must have a minimum of a bachelor's degree, preferably in Spanish language education, and teaching experience with the developmental stages to be taught. Global experiences are highly valued. Qualified candidates should also be able to differentiate lessons to engage students at varying ability levels. Collaboration with colleagues at multiple levels is a norm at Saint Stephen's. If hired, additional responsibilities may include a grade-level advisory, faculty committee membership, and a duty, such as lunch, morning, and/or afternoon student monitoring.

All faculty and staff are expected to possess excellent interpersonal and communication skills and carry out the Saint Stephen's Promise that "Every child will be known, and every child will be valued."
