College Admissions Process for Military-Connected High School Students

Virtual Event

September 28th (Monday)

6:30-7:30 pm EDT

ABOUT THIS WORKSHOP

This workshop helps military-connected families navigate the college admission process and understand exactly what students need to do to prepare. We will break down the online application process, outline key application components, explain different submission options, and share practical ways for students to stay organized. Finally, we will focus on specific resources, considerations, and opportunities unique to South Carolina.

Led by Charleston Community Coordinator, Marley Ott.
