

A detailed painting of a white egret standing in a marsh. The egret is on the left, facing right, with its long neck curved. It has a sharp yellow beak and dark legs. The background is filled with tall, golden-brown grasses and a body of water reflecting the light. The overall style is soft and painterly.

Michael C. Riley
Elementary School
Leading in the Lowcountry
2026-2027