

WHAT IS PAGEBREAK? PageBreak is a literary festival and contest for middle school writers. Come to participate in creative writing workshops, receive feedback on your writing, listen to a guest speaker, and win awesome prizes! It's an essential experience for any middle school writer.

WHO CAN ENTER? All 6th-8th grade writers are encouraged to submit their original poetry, fiction, or nonfiction to the contest and participate in the festival!

WHEN IS IT? Saturday, January 16th, 2027, 8:30AM - 2:00PM. Students must be present at the festival in order to have writing included in workshops and considered for awards.

WHERE IS IT? Adlai E. Stevenson High School, West Building (Parking Lot B)

HOW TO ENTER? Submit a piece of writing to this form by November 30, 2026. Then, come to the festival!

Submission Requirements:

Times New Roman, 12-pt font, double-spaced

Poetry: no more than 40 lines, single-spaced

Short Story: 1000 word limit

Nonfiction: 1000 word limit

Limit one submission per student

Must attend the festival to submit

For more info, visit our website at <https://sites.google.com/a/d125.org/page-break/>

Feel free to email rzagorski@d125.org with any questions.