Senior Mock Interviews — Paperwork Requirements

COVER LETTER: Your cover letter should be addressed to the contact person listed on the job posting. Use it to introduce yourself, explain why you are interested in the position, and highlight the skills, experience, and qualifications you have that make you a good candidate for that specific job.

RESUME: Your resume should highlight your education, experience, skills, activities, and accomplishments. Pay special attention to the qualifications listed in the job posting and make sure your resume clearly shows how you meet those requirements.

LEBANON HIGH SCHOOL

Senior Mock Interviews — Paperwork Requirements

APPLICATION: Complete the entire application neatly using blue or black ink. Answer all questions completely and accurately. Do not leave sections blank unless they do not apply to you.

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION: Include two letters of recommendation from people who can speak positively about your character, work ethic, dependability, skills, and ability to do the job. Choose people who know you well enough to provide specific examples of why you would be a good employee.

Senior Mock Interviews — Paperwork Requirements

Before You Turn It In:

Make sure your paperwork is complete, neat, professional, and specific to the job you are applying for. Treat this exactly as you would a real job application — because that is what we are practicing!

LEBANON HIGH SCHOOL

Senior Mock Interviews — Job Openings

All positions pay minimum wage. Review the eligibility requirements before choosing a position. Apply only for a job for which you meet ALL listed requirements.

Student reminder: Choose a position you can genuinely qualify for. Your résumé, cover letter, and interview should show how your school experience, activities, volunteering, hobbies, or previous employment support your qualifications.
