ACADEMIC PROGRAM & REPORTING, AP CAP

Deliberate curricular integration teaches students to draw connections across disciplines, building a broader understanding of themes, ideas, questions, and topics. Small classes taught around the Harkness table allow teachers to combine the best of one-on-one instruction with the dynamics of group discussion. Pacific Ridge operates on a final mastery grade system, whereby grades-in-progress are reported to students at 11-week, trimester intervals, and only the year-end grade on the transcript for each course is calculated in the cumulative GPA. Our Midyear Report to colleges in LATE January provides a snapshot of grades through interim 2.

Our long-standing cap of 3 AP courses remains for Juniors, 4 for Seniors as recommended by faculty.

RANK IN CLASS & GPA

Pacific Ridge School does not rank students due to the small size of each graduating class and the nature of a culture concentrated on fostering a life-long love of learning beyond the classroom. Each senior's weighted grade-point average is reported by College Guidance in the Secondary School Report, submitted with the official transcript. Our GPA is based on all graded courses taken at Pacific Ridge grades 9-12, and each honors, AP, and post-AP honors course with a grade of C or higher is weighted one point.

SERVICE LEARNING & LEADERSHIP

Training in outreach, investigation, and reflection prepares students to understand the difference between volunteering and serving issues of local and global concern. Our grade 9 Service Learning curriculum is framed by Model UN Sustainable Development goals, teaching students the impact and opportunity of policies that guide resources in: education, environment / climate change, health & human services, gender equality, science & innovation, peace & justice, and social justice.

Every 9th grader collaborates weekly to advance a mission under one of these umbrellas, and 77 current Seniors lead or remain in their Service Learning groups after satisfying their 9th-10th-grade requirement.

GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT

Global issues are woven into the curriculum, with two weeks each spring devoted to field courses connecting curricula, service, and curiosity about key issues in travels with classmates and faculty. Through partnerships with six exchange programs across four continents, Pacific Ridge extends these opportunities even further, enabling students to deepen their understanding of diverse cultures and languages.

SIGNATURE CO-CURRICULARS & GRADE-LEVEL PROJECTS

9th GRADE

Grade 9 students choose a topic of importance to them, research, craft and deliver an oration to their entire grade. Finalists are chosen by each advisory to present to the Upper School, faculty, administration, and the Board of Trustees. The Class of 2026 presented on topics ranging from faith and politics to the power of creative thinking.

10th GRADE

Grade 10 students connect with the purpose of memorials by researching a historically significant topic of personal interest and exploring how the existing narrative may relegate important, lesser-known persons or events to footnotes. Their creative expressions are showcased in a gallery walk to stoke curiosity for the intersectionality of art, history, and social movements.

11th GRADE

11th graders engage in the future-focused interview by identifying a subject working in a field of interest and posing questions to learn more about their subject's path and insights, then transcribe the experience into a presentation to educate the school community. Current seniors interviewed activists, local leaders in biotech, music & theater production, politics, and environmental conservation.

12th GRADE

Seniors develop a solo or team project to reflect their emerging identities and expertise, then share these with the community in a day-long Senior Seminar filled with Senior-led sessions for faculty and classmates in grades 9-11, each a reflection of the various arcs of development supported by the Pacific Ridge experience and the personal growth achieved throughout Seniors' Upper School life.
