MISSION

Our mission at Destrehan High School is to provide a nurturing community of teaching and learning in which all students will continuously improve to become responsible, contributing members of society.

VISION

Students of Destrehan High School experience a firm commitment from all stakeholders to create lifelong learners who are future-ready.

BELIEFS

Destrehan High School believes...

- ▶ in consistently holding high expectations, professionalism, and expecting quality work from ourselves and our students.
- ▶ in keeping the lines of communication open to encourage stakeholders to be positively involved in our students' education.
- ▶ in providing a safe and welcoming environment where everyone feels emotionally and physically secure and free to learn, a personalized community where every student has a sense of belonging and at least one adult advocate in the school.
- ▶ in fostering a school culture where all stakeholders teach and model trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, and citizenship.
