

Parent Bulletin Friday 25th September 2026

Dear Parent/Carer

It has been a really busy week at Slough and Eton. We've had school photographs taken, a book fair, Open Evening for Year 6 pupils, a theatre trip to The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time, our first Open Morning, the William Herschel Music project, Friday fundraisers, the European Day of Languages MFL competition and a 3 day Year 8 and 9 residential trip to Reading! As with all things the students have been great and those who helped out with Open Evening on Tuesday did an amazing job - and it was our best attended ever! This is all alongside a week of lessons of course!

Next week has plenty going on as well with a particularly important event on Thursday when Year 7 and 12 parents are invited into school to meet their child's Form Tutor. Please make sure you are on time for your appointments.

Free training for parents about online misogyny (Mrs Goodyear).

Slough Safer Partnership has arranged for Bold Voices to offer a free parent information session called Conversations We Can't Avoid: The Manosphere, Misogyny, and Risks to Teens. This is a great opportunity for parents & carers to gain a greater understanding about this worrying topic. The information flyer is below, you can register by clicking on the link underneath.

Conversations we can't avoid:

Helping parents navigate online risks and tough conversations about gender issues.

Young people today are navigating a complex world online, at school, in relationships, at parties, and in public spaces, where they may encounter pressures, influences, and situations that can be difficult to understand and respond to.

This session, delivered by Bold Voices, will help you make sense of the challenges teens are facing, including the wider influences shaping their views on gender, relationships, and behaviour. It will explore how these issues connect to broader patterns of inequality, and why they matter now more than ever.

The session will also reflect on some of the well-intentioned approaches parents often take that may not have the impact they hope for, and what can work better instead.

You'll leave feeling more confident, informed, and equipped, with practical tips, conversation starters, and trusted resources to help you support your teen and open up meaningful discussions at home.
