Offer valid for youth who join Cub Scouts between August 31 and October 31, 2026. Eligible new members will receive a free B'n'M Black Widow fishing pole while supplies last. Annual registration for the 12-month Scouting program is $160. Youth enrolled in Connecticut's HUSKY Health program may qualify for a reduced annual registration fee of $60. Individual packs may charge additional dues to help cover local program and activity costs. Pack 43 charges $40.00.

WHY CUB SCOUTS?

BELONGING • FRIENDSHIP • CONFIDENCE • ADVENTURE

A PLACE TO BELONG

Cub Scouts gives children a place to belong, make friends, build confidence, and experience real adventures—all in a welcoming, family-centered environment.

CHILDREN LEARN THROUGH

- Fishing, hiking, camping, and outdoor exploration
- Games, crafts, science, and community service
- Teamwork, problem-solving, and leadership
- Adventures the whole family can enjoy together

WHAT FAMILIES CAN EXPECT

- Programs for children in kindergarten through fifth grade
- Regular local pack and den meetings
- Trained adult volunteers focused on a safe, positive experience
- Flexible family participation—parents and caregivers can join the fun
- Activities and adventures throughout the year

WHAT DOES IT COST?

Annual registration provides a full 12-month Scouting program.

$160 / YEAR

Connecticut HUSKY Insurance rate: $60 annually.

Some packs charge additional local dues to help cover activities, supplies, awards, and other program costs.
