DISTRICT OFFICE USE

A parent whose child will receive home-based instruction instead of attending a public school, an approved private school, or an approved private school's extension program must file this declaration with the district once each school year, by September 15th or within two weeks of the start of any public school quarter, trimester, or semester. One declaration covers every child in the household; list them all below.

I declare that I am the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the child or children listed below, and that each is between the ages of eight and eighteen and therefore subject to chapter 28A.225 RCW, Compulsory Attendance. I intend to provide them home-based instruction as defined in RCW 28A.225.010(4). If a certificated person will supervise that instruction, I have checked the box below.

The law · RCW 28A.200.010(1)(a) Home-based instruction: duties of parents · last amended 2019

Each parent whose child is receiving home-based instruction under RCW 28A.225.010(4) shall have the duty to: (1) File annually a signed declaration of intent that he or she is planning to cause his or her child to receive home-based instruction. The statement shall include the name and age of the child, shall specify whether a certificated person will be supervising the instruction, and shall be written in a format prescribed by the superintendent of public instruction. Each parent shall file the statement by September 15th of the school year or within two weeks of the beginning of any public school quarter, trimester, or semester with the superintendent of the public school district within which the parent resides or the district that accepts the transfer, and the student shall be deemed a transfer student of the nonresident district. Parents may apply for transfer under RCW 28A.225.220.
