

ECHS Chatham Scholars Dual Enrollment Program

Chatham University & ECS have partnered to create a high school Dual Enrollment program that allows students to enroll in up to four Chatham University college-level courses taught on Chatham's Shadyside campus for free.

Course Progression	University Gen Ed Requirements/ ECHS Transcript	Students Enrolled
MTH104: Statistics for Everyday Life	Quantitative Reasoning/ Weighted HS Math	38
ENG 105: First Year Writing	English/ Weighted HS English	20
SUS 102: Sustainability & Society	Social Science/ Weighted Elective	5
Elective of Choice!	TBD/ Weighted Elective	13
Electives Include: *American Environmental History *Sustainability Science *Sustainability Cities *History of the British Empire *Intro to Psychology *Intro to Anthropology

50

ECS students have enrolled in Chatham Dual Enrollment courses.

200+

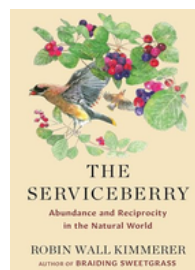

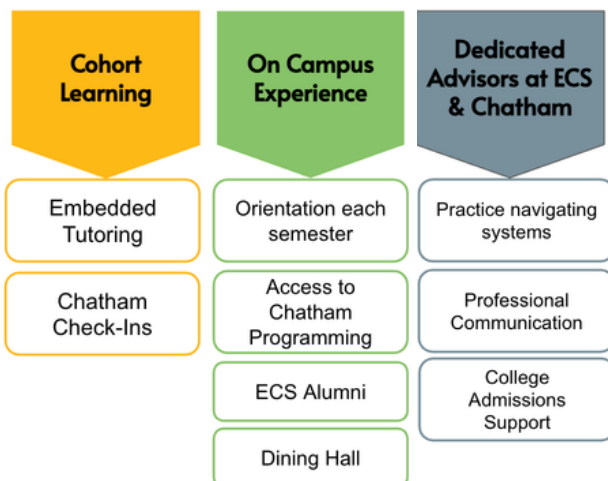

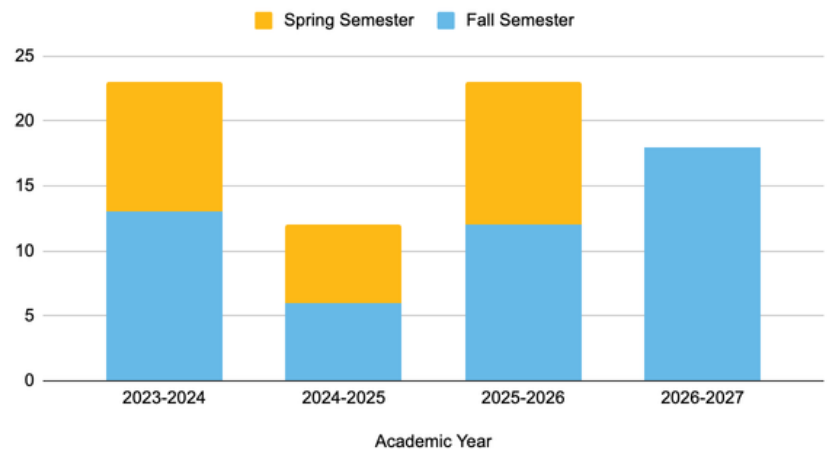

Collectively, ECS students have earned over 200 college credits.

4

ECS graduates have continued their education as Chatham University students

Dual Enrollment

“Thriving is possible only if you have nurtured strong bonds with your community.”

— Robin Wall Kimmerer, The Serviceberry: Abundance and Reciprocity in the Natural World

