

Portrait of a Garrison Forest Graduate

OUR VISION

Garrison Forest women live “To Be Rather Than To Seem,”
leading with authenticity, integrity, and impact.

OUR MISSION

A Garrison Forest School education empowers every girl to achieve academic excellence, cultivate her authentic self, foster a community of care and respect, and lead with purpose.

ON HER PATH TO BECOMING A WOMAN OF IMPACT, A GARRISON FOREST GRADUATE...

Achieves Academic Excellence

She builds and applies deep knowledge with purpose, approaches complex ideas with curiosity and intellectual courage, and develops evidence-based perspectives. She embraces challenge and intellectual risk, using feedback, self-advocacy, reflection, and revision to strengthen her work and pursue excellence.

Cultivates Her Authentic Self

She applies her understanding of her strengths, passions, values, and aspirations to make purposeful choices and pursue meaningful goals. She communicates with an understanding of purpose, audience, and setting, using her voice with clarity, confidence, and authenticity.

Fosters a Community of Care and Respect

She seeks to understand the complexity of others' experiences, identities, and perspectives with compassion, curiosity, humility, and respect. She strengthens the community through meaningful relationships, thoughtful collaboration, and a sense of responsibility for helping others feel known, valued, supported, and respected.

Leads with Purpose

She embraces opportunities to contribute, takes initiative, follows through with purpose and accountability, and takes ownership of her role in moving a community toward a shared goal. She uses her voice, strengths, and knowledge to create meaningful impact within and beyond Garrison Forest.
