Press Release:

Wilmington School Committee Seeks Community Input on Name of New Elementary School

The Wilmington School Committee invites community members to share their input as it considers a name for the new elementary school. Three names are currently under consideration: North Elementary School, Salem Street Elementary School, and Northside Elementary School. Community members may also suggest other names.

An online survey will be open from Monday, September 28, through Wednesday, October 14, 2026. You can find the link here: Help Name Wilmington's New Elementary School.

The School Committee will hold a public hearing on Wednesday, October 21, 2026, at 6:30 p.m., before its regularly scheduled meeting. The hearing will provide an opportunity for the public to share additional input and for the Committee to discuss feedback from the survey for the naming options. The Committee is scheduled to vote on the school's name at its meeting on Wednesday, November 18, 2026, at 6:30 p.m.

We welcome your participation in this decision and look forward to hearing your ideas.
Sincerely,

Matthew P. Poska
Superintendent of Schools
