1971

MAINE CENTRAL INSTITUTE

PITTSFIELD, MAINE

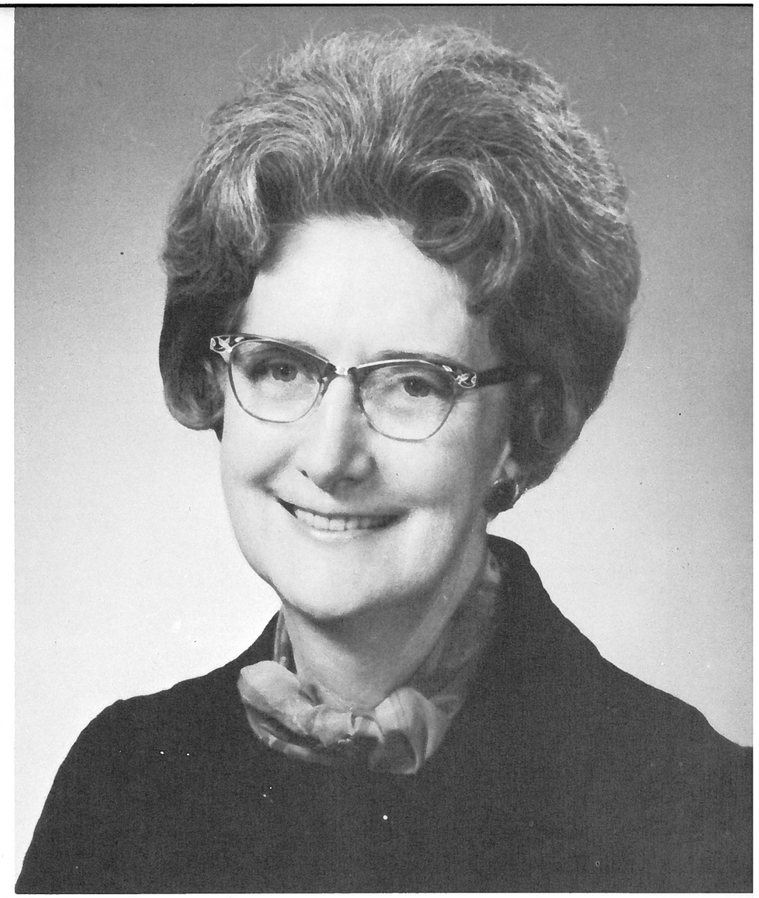

YEARBOOK
1971

HEADMASTER

Edward R. Stanley

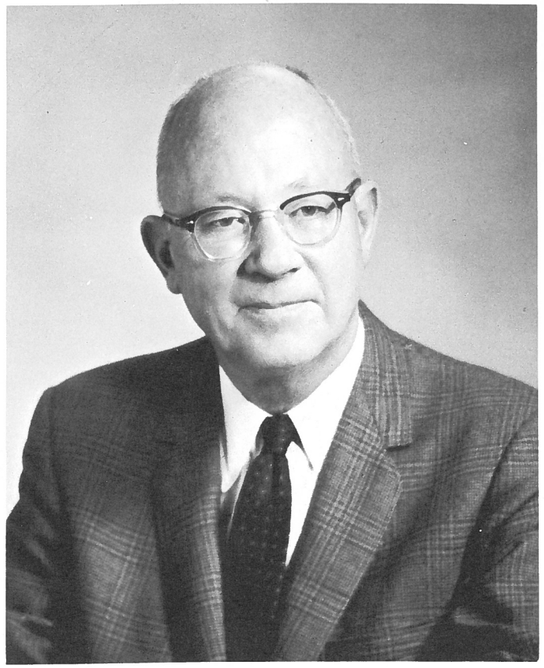

A.B., A.M. (Hon.) Bates College

DEDICATION

The 1971 TRUMPET is respectfully dedicated to Mrs. John B. Furbush, who for many years has given unstintingly of her time and effort to the end that many facets of the MCI program may be better.

IN MEMORIAM

BOUTELLE SAVAGE
Jan. 13, 1910 — Nov. 21, 1970

Although his tenure on the Board spanned only six years, few trustees in the one hundred four years history of Maine Central Institute have surpassed Boutelle Savage in their impact upon the school. Mr. Savage brought to the board a keen interest in MCI, stemming in part from the role played by the school in the secondary education of his two sons, Michael '62 and Thomas '64, but also from a deep and sincere interest in education for all. He brought, too, a wealth of experience in business. Most of all, he brought a keen interest in people, a genuine desire to help MCI maintain and strengthen its position in Maine education, and a firm conviction that the school had much to offer its students and the communities it served. Under his leadership as President, the Board of Trustees made impressive strides toward resolving problems and preparing to cope with the demands of its second century of operation. His friendly and wise counsel will be sorely missed.

IN MEMORIAM

HAZEL M. EARLE
Sept. 10, 1901 — July 22, 1970

With the passing of Hazel Monteith Earle in July, 1970, MCI and its students lost a devoted friend and a truly great teacher. For twenty years, she ministered to the educational needs of MCI youngsters, always concerned, always patient, always striving to the end that her students should learn to appreciate the satisfaction that comes from achievement. The School is a better place for her having been an important part of it over two decades; many hundreds of her former students are better people for having had the privilege of knowing and working with her and this is her epitaph. For a teacher, could there be a finer?
