We are excited to announce that five of our GCHS Unified Warriors competed in the Special Olympics Bocce Ball Tournament in Highland last weekend!

Congratulations to the following athletes on their amazing accomplishments:

Silver Medalist: Zoe Fish

Bronze Medalists: Lili Schofield & Jayken Furlow

Fourth-Place Finishes: Selena Velez & Jayden Williams

We are so proud of each of these athletes for stepping onto the court and representing GCHS with determination and outstanding sportsmanship.

Our next Special Olympics event will be bowling in October, and we can't wait to cheer on our Unified Warriors again!

If you see these athletes today, please join us in congratulating them on a fantastic Bocce Ball tournament!

Way to go, Warriors!

Seniors this is a reminder that official transcripts are required to complete your college application. You must create an account at parchment.com and request they be sent to any school you wish to apply to. This process could take a few days before they are sent so start early to ensure you don't miss priority deadlines and scholarship opportunities.

- 9/25

Summer is over and it is time to fall in love with a new lemonade flavor! Stop by and try a Sour Apple Lemonade at the Grounds City Cafe!
