We are excited to announce that five of our GCHS Unified Warriors competed in the Special Olympics Bocce Ball Tournament in Highland last weekend!

Congratulations to the following athletes on their amazing accomplishments:

Silver Medalist: Zoe Fish

Bronze Medalists: Lili Schofield & Jayken Furlow

Fourth-Place Finishes: Selena Velez & Jayden Williams

We are so proud of each of these athletes for stepping onto the court and representing GCHS with determination and outstanding sportsmanship.

Our next Special Olympics event will be bowling in October, and we can't wait to cheer on our Unified Warriors again!

If you see these athletes today, please join us in congratulating them on a fantastic Bocce Ball tournament!

Way to go, Warriors!

Today's hispanic heritage month highlight:

Marcario Garcia

García became the first Mexican national to receive a Congressional Medal of Honor following his heroic efforts during World War II. García bravely fought while injured to help his fellow soldiers while serving in Germany in 1944. After returning home, he gained his U.S. citizenship and was active in his community and a strong advocate for civil rights.

Seniors – If you like to visit Chicago, then Lake Forest College in Lake Forest Illinois is for you. If you strive for excellence in education, Lake Forest teachers and administrators will gladly help you achieve your goal. They offer practical experiences through internships, research, study in other countries, and a special in THE LOOP Program! 98% of their graduates have jobs they love, enter graduate school, or pursue other avenues of success within six months of graduation. If this sounds like a college you might want to attend, the representative will be in the cafeteria today during lunch hours.
