- A guest must enter with their host student.
- CNHS Student is responsible for the actions of the guest.

Dance Dress Code

Student's appearance at dances should be modest. Students who arrive at the event in violation of the dress code, as determined by the staff and administration, will be sent home or asked to change their clothing.

Appropriate dress is determined by school staff. Please see the student handbook page 55

Alcohol, Drug, and Smoking/Vaping Policies

Please see the student handbook page 56

The Administration and Faculty of Cardinal Newman High School expect parents and students to support the policies and educational programs on substance use. Parents and older siblings are both legally and morally responsible any time they allow alcohol, tobacco, and/or drug use by underage minors. Parents are asked to closely monitor the activities of their children especially at times when the parents cannot be present in the home.

- Students under the influence of drugs, alcohol, tobacco, or any other controlled substance or facilitating the same on school grounds while involved in any school-related activity or at any location or in any situation which could reflect adversely on Cardinal Newman High school are liable for expulsion.
- Students found offering or providing a controlled substance either online or during the school day for use, sale or distribution are liable for expulsion and law enforcement may be contacted.
- Any activities involving paraphernalia or "look-alikes" associated with controlled substances will result in suspension or expulsion.
- The trade, sale or ingestion of medication prescribed to someone else is illegal and dangerous. The consumption and/or possession of alcohol, tobacco, non-personal medications, or vaping products is illegal for all students who attend CNHS.
- Being present when such substances are being used presumes some level of participation and may result in suspension or expulsion.

Violation of these policies may result in the following actions:

- Parent(s) or guardian(s) will be notified.
- The student will be suspended from school pending the outcome of the investigation.
- The student and parent(s)/guardian(s) will conference with the Principal, Dean of Students and/or other school officials.
- If the student is not expelled, they will be placed on a Behavior Contract. Provisions of the contract may include professional evaluation, counseling, involvement with a support group, rehabilitation if recommended by the evaluation, random drug testing and any other provision deemed necessary by the Dean of Students
