

Shape the Future of Education: Join the Teacher Registered Apprenticeship Program

Connecticut State Department of Education Teacher Registered Apprenticeship Program

The Connecticut State Department of Education's (CSDE) Teacher Registered Apprenticeship Program (T-RAP) is a premier "earn-and-learn" initiative, bridging the gap between aspiring teachers, educator preparation programs (EPPs), and K-12 school districts.

Why Partner with CSDE T-RAP?

School Districts

- Grow Your Own Talent: Build a loyal, diverse pipeline of high-quality teachers.
- Reduce Turnover: Train candidates directly within your school culture.
- Financial Support: Leverage funding to offset training and mentorship costs.

Educator Preparation Programs (EPPs)

- Immersive Training: Offer a paid residency model bridging theory and practice.
- Stronger Partnerships: Deepen collaboration with local K-12 districts.
- Boost Enrollment: Attract candidates with a financially viable path to certification.

Aspiring Educators

- Earn While You Learn: Receive a competitive wage while completing your degree.
- Expert Mentorship: Work daily alongside a certified mentor teacher.
- Less Student Debt: Access tuition support and paid employment.
