WestPut's Ed Law Lunch

A Three-Part Virtual Webinar Series

PART I | SOCIAL MEDIA, THE FIRST AMENDMENT & PARENTAL RIGHTS

SOCIAL MEDIA & THE FIRST AMENDMENT
Explore the legal boundaries surrounding social media use by board members, employees, and students, including what districts can regulate or discipline and recent developments in First Amendment law.

OPT-OUTS: RELIGIOUS & PARENTAL RIGHTS
Get an update on recent cases involving religious and parental rights, along with practical guidance for navigating opt-out requests and related issues in your district.

Friday, October 30, 2026

12:00–1:30 PM | Virtual Webinar

Join local education law attorneys for a timely discussion of legal issues affecting school districts, board members, employees, students, and families.

Featuring presentations from our legal partners throughout the series:
Bond, Schoeneck & King • Guercio & Guercio • Ingerman Smith • Jaspan Schlesinger Narendran • Keane & Beane • Shaw Perelson • Thomas, Drohan, Waxman, & Petigrow

$25 per person

Register through your district clerk

Cancellations after 10/23 & no-shows will be charged to the district.

Part I of a three-part Ed Law Lunch virtual webinar series.
Registration for each session is separate.