2A No. 6 Cascade vs. Frankfort: The halftime score was the final score, 42-0, as the Cadets improved to 4-1. Lucas Farmer's statistics included 83 yards rushing, two touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving), one sack, two solo tackles and an interception. Other Cadets finding the end zone were Timothy Turner Jr., Michael Langley, Cody Morgan and Gage Minardo. Brogan Trump was good for four PATs. Trent Austin had nine tackles, while Cain Willis added seven more.

Next: Cascade @ Crawfordsville (2-3), Friday, 7 p.m.

but kept the game at a draw thanks to a goal by Dominic Owens.

Plainfield: Defending against new conference opponent Bloomington North proved difficult, and the Quakers dropped the match 2-0. The team traveled to the Evansville Memorial Tournament and came home with a 1-1 record. The Quakers were tied 0-0 at halftime against the Henry Clay Blue Devils (KY). A second-half goal by Graham Anderson wasn't enough to win, despite Daniel Rodriguez Terradillos and Ayden Babkowski combining for 11 saves on the night. They found luck in the first minute against Fort Wayne Concordia on Saturday when Alacene Kagirabana scored. Raiden Brandgard added a goal in the second half to seal the win.

Tri-West: The Bruins were propelled by a Jace Daniels goal, assisted by Aiden Brower, in the second half to get the 1-1 draw against Lebanon. It was an Danville: Winning 8-1 in front of a large home crowd, goals were scored by Madisyn Valenti (4), Olivia Poole (3) and Wynsleigh Dorsey. Dorsey (2), Hayden McGrath (2), Valenti (2), Harper Martin and Evelyn Pritchett provided the assists. Casey Hummel got the win in the box with four saves.

Hummel and Addison Flater kept a clean sheet against Cascade, with goals by Chloe Hall, Dorsey and Valenti (2), and assists by Dorsey, Pritchett and Valenti (2). The Warriors improved to 9-3 with a 7-1 win at Decatur Central. Dorsey added four more goals to her impressive season, while Mar-
