Save The Last Dance

It featured a last minute change, but the seniors pulled off the last dance of their high school careers with style. Flooding in the South County area forced the dance to move to Andre's South location the day before, but the seniors didn't miss a beat. Student Council and Andre's Banquet Centers deserve thanks. There were no issues mainly because these seniors have had four years of being educated for adaptation and change. Well played seniors, well played.

Lost Season

The JV Football Team was unable to get in the win column in the 2016 season. With a short roster along with many injuries, the team had an uphill battle for success. A couple game cancellations along with a combined Sophomore/Freshman game was the reason the JV could not gain any consistent momentum. The highlight was an offensive line that gained valuable experience together.

Running as One

The Griffins had an above average season in 2016, placing near the top of every meet, but were only able to secure one win on the season. They started off strong with a first place finish at the Marianist Lt. Dan Riordan meet. They also had some success at the Hillsboro Invitational with their JV team earning 2nd place, showing that the team has potential to be a force to be reckoned with in the coming years. There were high hopes for some runners to qualify for state this year, but the team had a disappointing Districts failing to qualifying any runners for sectionals.

The 16-17 season was a long and hard-fought one, but the journey came to an end in the District Finals against Webster where the team's skills and resilience were put the test. Despite the losses, Vianney managed to overcome them with many signature wins such as in the Vianney Invitational against SLUH and the O'Fallon Shootout. Senior Eric Krus earned this Vianney season's MVP averaging 18.1 PPG 7.8 RPG and 1.6 APG and also joined the 1,000 Point Club!!

The highlight was when the team took first place in their home tournament (Vianney Tournament) for the second year in a row. Four Griffin grapplers were champions in the tournament, at 145 Joe Hoffmann, at 170 Jon Mataya, at 182 Cade Sexauer, and at 285 Jim Laaker. They also had a new head coach in Joe Day who had help from Alum and Assistant Coach Andy Bader. The Griffins had an overall head to head record of 6 wins and 13 losses.

Brick by Brick

The JV wrestling squad had another year of building. The team was forced to battle a tough schedule this year, but it is all about the process. Because the JV was unable to field a full line-up they struggled as a team and placing in tournaments, but they still put up good individual results. There will be many rising stars from the JV wrestling squad who will be filling big roles on the Varsity team. The future is bright for the Vianney wrestling team as the program keeps building towards success brick by brick.

The Vianney Varsity Hockey team had a stellar, hard fought season but an even better playoff run. The Griffins defeated Parkway South 4-2 then took down the #4 seed DeSmet Spartans 2-1, knocking them out of contention, and moving the Griffins onto the next round. Vianney Hockey would battle it out all the way to the Final Eight for State, losing by just one goal 3-2 to eventual and four time reigning champs CBC in the quarterfinals.

What a Run

The Varsity Baseball team earned a trip to another Final Four behind outstanding pitching and timely hitting. After defeating SLUH for the District Championship and ending their 26 year District Championship streak the Griffins beat Marquette in extra-innings and then Poplar Bluff in a 1-0 pitchers dual. After a loss in the semi's to Ft. Zumwalt West the squad bounced back to win the 3rd place contest against Lee's Summit 9-0. A historic 32 win season that included a 12 game winning streak, featured a Junior-heavy pitching rotation and a very talented junior-senior line-up at the plate.

A 17 win season that included a 13 game winning streak speaks volumes for a B baseball team that was prepared and expected to win. The team was made up of mostly sophomores with a couple of freshmen playing significant time as well. Top players at the plate included Mitch Green (BA .346 and 10 RB1) and Grant Atwood (BA .320 and 15 RBI). Hank Sauer (.677 ERA and 24 Ks) and Ryan Insco (.519 ERA and 15 Ks) led the pitching staff. TENNIS, ANYONE?

This year's Vianney Varsity and Junior Varsity Teams both had rough two-win seasons that were a result of the loss of graduating players. However, the team knew this and was determined to start the rebuilding process through hard work and training. While not winning many matches, there were some great individual performances from Luke Prost, Thomas Beckmann, Bryce Castleberg, and Zach Rehagen. Despite the down year, the team hopes to start next year with even more enthusiasm and tenacity.

Making Strides

The Vianney Lacrosse team has shown rapid improvement in recent years, this year being the best so far. This year alone the team scored twenty seven more points in six less games, increased their goals per game by four goals, and have had more ten plus goal games than the last two years combined. The lacrosse team's record sees slight improvement every year. The 2017 season was a learning opportunity for an overall young squad.

The baker Ragueneau (Hans Mohr) exquisitely reenacts Cyrano's ballad and sword fight.

Roxanne (Claire Beirne) and Duenna (Christina Boul) talk before the magnificent Montfleury takes the stage.

The Dueling Romantic

Griffin Theatre's first production of the year was the classic tale of the long-nosed swordsman and word-smith, Cyrano DeBergerac. He vies for the love of his beautiful cousin Roxanne, but two things hold him back. She falls for the handsome Cadet of Gascony, Christian and Cyrano has a nose so large it could house baby birds. Cyrano, with the help of his best friends must fight a bloody war, combat the evil DeGuiche who wants Roxanne for himself and gain the love of the beautiful Roxanne.

Two Cadets (Karl Bitzer and Stephen Reddick) listen to Cyrano's epic story.

Lingniere (Sean Carey) and Christian (James Whalen) discuss plans.

LeBret (Ethan Bopp) Cyrano (Robert Spencer) and Captain Castel-Jaloux (Jack Villhard) converse quietly as the Cadets sleep.

A dying Christian (James Whalen) is brought to Cyrano.

Cyrano (Robert Spencer) and Valvert (Lucas Mead) fight to the death while Cyrano recites a ballad.

Cyrano DeBergerac is the play written by Edmond Rostand in 1897. The play was adapted by Erna Kruckemeyer and edited for the high school stage by Vianney's Theater Director Mr. Al Book.

Christian (James Whalen) tries to convince Roxanne (Claire Beirne) to stay away from the battle.

THE COURT IS IN SESSION

The critically acclaimed comedy Monty Python and The Holy Grail has been brought to Griffin Theatre! Well, kind of. It has actually been "lovingly" ripped off into the musical, "Spamalot"! King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table have been quested by God to find the Holy Grail. With the help of the Lady of the Lake, they must overcome evil knights, exotic Frenchmen, a killer bunny, and a low budget in order to find the Grail, while always remembering to look on the bright side of life!

Making Some Noise

Vianney Music Director Jacob Bisaillion had a busy 2016-17 school year to say the least. His usual schedule of directing the Christmas and Spring Concerts, organizing and conducting the Pep Band for big home athletic games and special events was interrupted by the birth of his first child. With little rest he pressed on, also conducting the music for the Spring Musical Spamalot. The winner of this year's John Philip Sousa Award for Outstanding Musicianship was senior Nick Macchi.

Men of Mary

Campus Ministry organized some of the best masses this year led by Father Tim, Mr. Jeremy Remiger and countless other's efforts. There were touching moments singing powerful songs in Mass led by Mr. Remiger. The Griffins showed their caring spirit through multiple charity events such as the annual Blood Drives, Canned Food Drives, World Food Day, Sandwiches for the Homeless every Thursday, Baby Needs Drive and Mosquito Nets. During Marianist week Mr. Dennis Matreci professed himself as a lay Marianist, and the freshmen received their Marianist Medallions.

Doing Good

Being a man of character means that many times you are asked to go out into the community and help in anyway possible. Griffins did this on a regular basis throughout the year. Whether it was collecting food, toys, clothing and even blood, the Griffins never wavered. Many students and faculty also lent a helping hand in nearby communities in need of maintenance or assistance and of course the juniors made a huge impact in the St. Louis area on their Social Service Projects

GROWING IN FAITH

Each class at Vianney attended either a one day or overnight retreat. On the retreats students come closer to God, learn more about themselves and their Vianney brothers. Each class is presented with deep reflection and prayer, also they grow in the Marianist values. Freshmen and Sophomores go on one day retreats while the Juniors and Seniors go on over night retreats. Many great things happen on these retreats including deep discussions, bonding activities,or motivational and inspiring talks.

Great Moves

The chess squad was up to its usual standards again in the 2016-17 season. Placing high in tournaments and winning many head-to-head match-ups, the team upheld their high standards even with a very young roster. In fact, only a team made up of freshmen and sophomores were able to participate at Nationals, but still came away with a 21st place finish.
