

MEDIA & ANIMATION

Description

The Media and Animation program helps students conceptualize and practice processes in modern media and animation. Students learn modern media tools and software applications to create and edit digital video and audio content. Our lab provides access to the latest tools of the trade including Premier Pro and After Effects. Students use equipment including digital tablets, digital cameras and high-definition cameras to complete state of the art projects both on-location and in our Green Screen Studio. Classroom projects may include: stop-motion, motion graphics, animated characters and assets, theme videos, live action events and the opportunity to complete industry projects for clients. The focus is on hands-on learning and career focused instruction.
