Chalk Painting Our Hispanic Heritage:

Mrs. Holley would like to personally thank NAHS Members-Valerie Gaffney, Abby Kelso, and Kasey Pernia for participating this past Saturday in the Annual "Chalk Painting Our HIspanic Heritage: Student Contest" which highlights the beauty of Latin American cultures. NAHS students selected Costa Rica as their Hispanic country and recreated their vision on a 10 ft x10 ft space with only chalk as their medium. It was a beautiful day to work alongside other students from various schools, to learn more about Hispanic Culture, and to represent Haynes Academy with our artistic talents

Art Contest Winner:

Congratulations to Bella Kocic! Lynnwood Place Residential Assisted Living hosted an art contest for an exhibition “What makes Louisiana Beautiful.” Bella won first place and attended the open house of the new assisted living home in Mandeville where she was presented with a $150.00 Amazon Gift Card. Mrs. Holley is so proud of Bella and all Talented Visual Art student participants who worked on this meaningful and creative community project.
