The Basics of AP

- Advanced Placement Program[®] (AP[®]) courses are college-level courses offered in high school. AP courses reflect what is taught in top introductory college courses
- At the end of course, students take AP Exams—standardized exams that measure how well students have mastered college-level course work. In Middle Country, students are not required to take the AP Exam to be enrolled in the class.
- Students who do well on AP Exams can earn credit and/or placement into advanced courses in college.

The Benefits of AP Courses

- AP teachers are among the most prepared, dedicated, and inspiring teachers at their schools.
- AP courses can be challenging, but it's work that pays off.
- AP students develop confidence, and learn the study habits and time management skills essential for success in college.
- Colleges rank "Grades in college prep courses" and "Strength of curriculum" as the top two factors in the admission decision. Credit Weight is 1.1 (Course Grade Multiplied by 1.1)
- 85% of selective colleges and universities report that a student's AP experience favorably impacts admission decisions.

What are AP Courses Like

- Classes tend to be fast-paced and cover more material than typical high school honors classes.
- AP teachers expect their students to think critically, analyze and synthesize facts and data, weigh competing perspectives, and write clearly and persuasively.
- More time, inside and outside of the classroom, is required to complete lessons, assignments and homework.
